Level: Ancestors (Great Great Grand Parents)

Now, we would like to know, in as detailed way as possible, where the generation of your great great grand parents was living just before the WWII.

As your ancestors could live within the previous or current Polish borders, to remind you I will show you the map on which these borders before the war and after the war are showed. The green and red colours represent Poland before the WWII, and red and yellow colours represent Poland after the WWII.

INTERVIEWER: Please, show the respondent the map „Poland before and after the war”

Before we ask the next question we would like to remind you that:

- When we speak about Eastern Kresy we mean the territories which before the WWII belonged to the Second Polish Republic and since the end of the war belonged to the USSR and today belong to Ukraine, Belarus or Lithuania
- When we speak about Central Poland we mean the lands that belong to Poland now and belonged to Poland before WWII
- When we speak about Western and Northern Territories (that used to be called Recovered Territories) we mean lands that belonged to Germany before WWII and became part of Poland after the WWII. We will refer to these lands as Western Territories.
